

Use of our website is conditioned upon your acceptance of all terms, conditions, and policies as stated here. The terms “we”, “us” and “our” used throughout the site refer to Plan and Plant Design.

Our product is an electronic rendered Image that is delivered via email. This Image is for illustrative purposes and in no way represents construction documents. We recommend that you take the entered Image that you ordered to a local licensed contractor or landscape installer of your choice to show them the vision you would like to achieve for your property.

You must comply with all local and state building and accessibility codes that apply in your area when you implement the ideas we have illustrated in the provided rendered Image. Keep in mind that many architectural changes such as a porch addition or roof structural change may necessitate the need for you to procure construction documents from a licensed architect or designer. Because of the limited information provided to us and the nature of a photograph, Plan and Plant Design waives all warranties whether expressed or implied. You are responsible for verifying all of your site and building conditions.

Due to the nature of varying color presentation on different electronic devices, we do not guarantee a certain color representation on your Image. We provide color inspiration and direction but Plan and Plant Design does not guarantee that the rendered Image that we provide to you will appear or print in exactly that color.

Plan and Plant Design does not guarantee that we will incorporate all the information you provided in your questionnaire. We will suggest what our design team feels is best for your property. Our services are non-refundable and each rendered Image is a final product that cannot be modified after the 72 hour revision period. Prices on our website are subject to change without notice.

Plan and Plant Design reserves the right to alter or amend these terms and conditions at any time.

With the purchase of our product, you agree to the use of the photos that you provided to us, as well as the rendered Image we produce for you to be used for by Plan and Plant Design for marketing purposes.
